

Dear Families, Staff and Children,

At Holy Family we ensure that students learn to listen, to read, view, speak, write, create and reflect on texts which are progressively more challenging as the children's skills develop. You would be aware that we have had a huge focus on reading in the school. There has been a big leap in reading performance in the school as a result the children are reading with accuracy, fluency and purpose. I am also pleased to tell you that there is a related leap in written language skills at Holy Family. Please read the following examples and celebrate the development. I urge you not only to read to your children at home, also ask them to share their writing with you by reading it to you. You will enjoy the experience. It is one thing for a school to make claims about literacy and numeracy, it is another thing to show the proof is in the pudding.

Validity and fairness – What I'd do next time, I'd do it at home because the freezer in the class gets opened a lot so that probably did something to the end result of the experiment. I think that we were a little unfair because the room temperature was at the back and at the back it was colder and the boiling water was in the front which also means that the warm air would hit it more. So, next time I would put them all in the back.

Real world – In the real world, if you're in a hurry you can make the mixture boiling and then put it in the freezer then it would freeze faster. Like Erasto Mpemba, a Tanzanian student, but you're actually doing it intentionally. The story is that in 1963, his classmates were meant to boil a mixture of cream and sugar, let it cool down and then put it in the freezer. Because Erasto was so worried about getting a spot in the freezer, he instead put it in the freezer while still very hot. But then after about 1 hour his mixture froze and his classmates' mixtures didn't. This is him today! At 70 years old.

once upon a time there was a girl named Rose. She couldn't pronounce words properly. It was her 1st day of school, she thought everyone was going to get distracted by her. She looked at her inventory in her bag, it had everything she needed. Rose was extremely nervous because she thought everyone was going to make fun of her. When she was at school she thought "My grammar is terrible!" The girl next to Rose was named Lola. She dropped her water bottle, Rose got it and gave it to Lola! Lola said "thanks, what's your name?" Rose said "Rose" Lola was confused, she thought "is that Rose or Rosie?" Their memory was so confused Rose had a problem! Rose felt sad and shared a symbol of a sad emoji on the internet. Rose's mum received a message and ran to the school and shouted "DARLING YOU NEED TO COME HOME!" Rose went home and home schooled. Then they were happy ever after.

Why should we plant seeds?

I highly recommend that people should plant seeds. I am going to try to educate and persuade you to think what I think.

Lucas 4NB

Firstly, I definitely believe that we all should plant seeds because when you plant a seed you will always get nice fresh oxygen to live. Oxygen is good because if you don't have oxygen you will not be able to breathe or live this is because when you stop breathing there is no air going to the brain then cells will start to die. If everyone plants seeds the world will be colorful and a better place.

Secondly, I believe that you must plant seeds because if you plant one seed will always get will get a nice a tasty veg or perhaps some fruit only if you use the right seeds. To make plants grow all you need is soil, water, sunlight and keep doing it to make it grow.

National Sorry day.

As you can tell by the name, National Sorry day is a day to be sorry for how we've treated the Aboriginal people in the past. This special day is held on the 26th of May each year.

National sorry day is a very special day because we apologize for how we've treated the Aboriginals and to be sorry for the devastation of the stolen generation.

What has happened in the past

From 1800s to 1970s Aboriginals children have been removed from their families and communities. * They've been forced to * It was devastating for the Aboriginal people/families who've lost part of their families.

"Euphoria, Darling I'm here!" Said a voice, It sounded familiar, though it was weak and unsteady.

"Mama?!" replied the little black wolf.

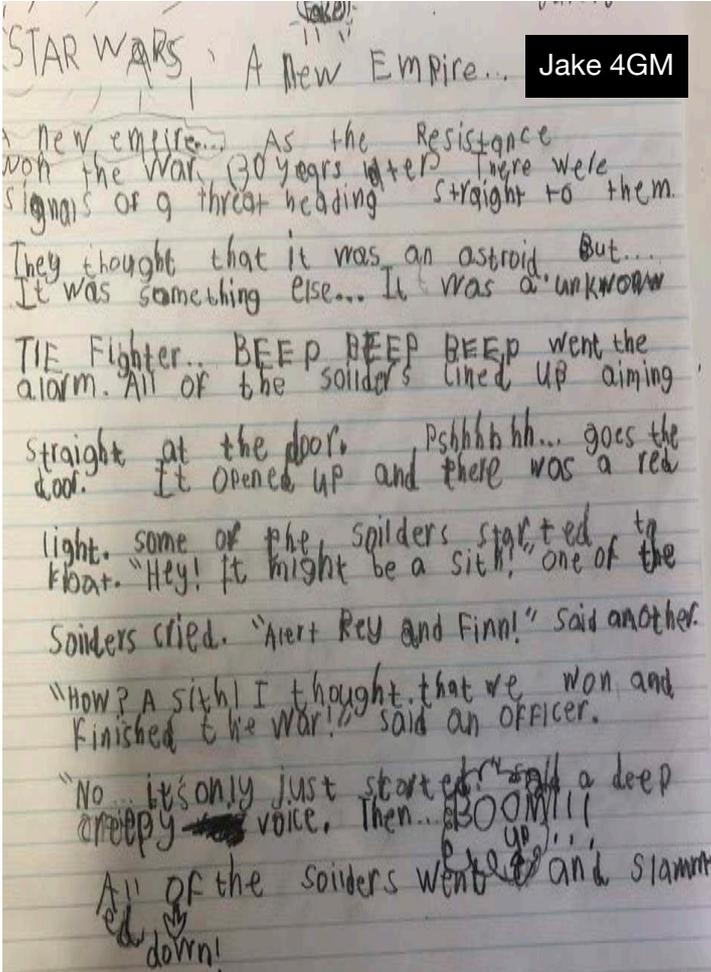

"I'm here!" Said the familiar voice again still very shaky and unsteady.

Euphoria finally found her mother, Ching-Yan.

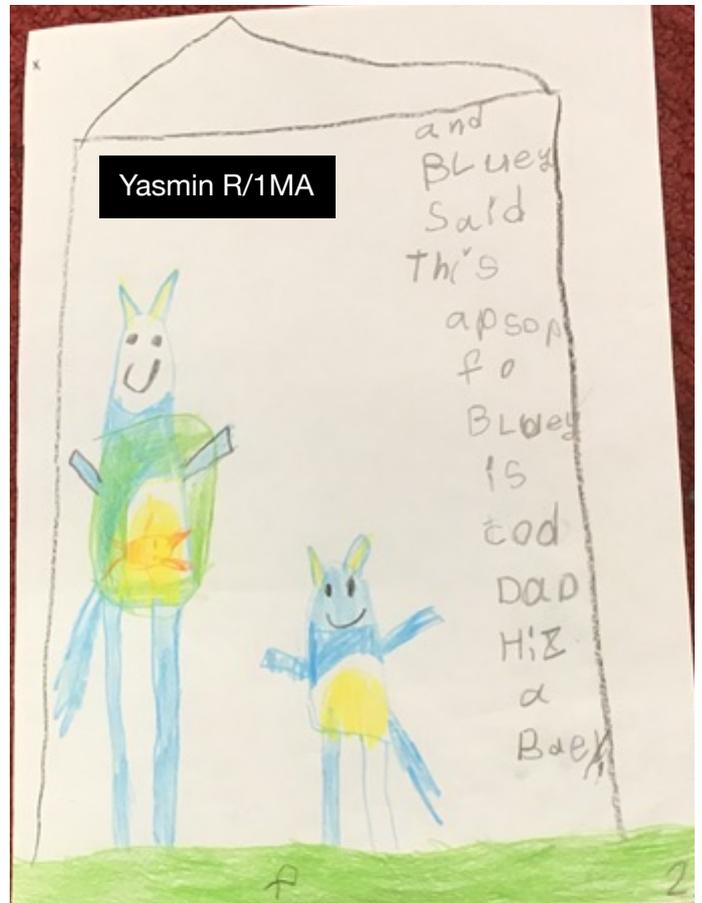

"Mama!" Cried little Euphoria shivering with fear as she trembles across the thick snow.

Do you like winning? If so, vote for me Jash. I want to be your sports day captain for Travers. I certainly believe that I will be a very good captain because I am a hard worker, I never give up and I am always kind and responsible.

I strongly believe that I have the capabilities to be a captain for Travers because I am a hard worker. I work very hard on things that I want to achieve and I am always working hard for everything. I work very hard to win all season in netball and get more than 6 wins in a row and I worked very hard to get very good grades and I work very hard on things like homework, leadership. As a hard worker, I will work hard to see TRAVERS as the winners on sports day.

room, "Boy your lazy butt's been there for the whole holidays and all your clothes have been there for a long time, get up you need to take your brother to school."
Andrew lived with his Mum (Amanda), his dad (Blake), his sister (Delia), his older brother (Max) and his naughty little brother (Luke).
Andrew got up and got ready to drop Luke off at school. He was excited that tomorrow was his first day of university. Andrew was getting into his car and realized his little brother Luke was missing he went into the house and saw Luke hiding under his bed. "Hey buddy... why are you down here?"
Luke was rolled up like a ball "I am scared to go to school,"
"It's ok school is good they will help you get better"
"Ok... HAHahaha got ya"
"Ugg!"
Andrew was mad but he did nothing about it since his brother was young. They got into Andrew's car and Andrew dropped Luke off at school they went down Hasteral and then onto Jenosten. When Andrew dropped Luke off at school, he didn't realize that he drove past his dad's cardboard box he told Andrew to never open that box or bad things would happen. Andrew always thought he just said that to make him scared. When Andrew got back, he saw the box and ignored it. A few hours later he heard a strange drum noise but not like the ones in a rock band it was scarier and it shook the room. Andrew went to go load his car since he was going to go to university he was allowed to go to the best university for free because he always got straight A's. As he walked in the garage, he saw a glowing box. He walked up to the glowing box and didn't realize it was his dad's box. He walked up to it and opened the rusty box. He looked inside and there it was a portal gun he thought it was a normal gun and picked it up. Andrew accidentally fired the gun and got scared but it was a portal instead. He got curious and touched the portal and ZAP! The portal sucked him in. He fell through the sky and into a poison ivy bush but for some reason it didn't hurt him not to long later he heard people fighting and went to go check it out.
"Who are you!" screeched Mitchell. The Andrew looked very surprised. Andrew politely said "I'm Andrew,"
"I'm Rebecca and this is my older brother, Mitchell!" exclaimed Rebecca. There was some awkward silence for a few seconds.
"How did you get here?" Asked Rebecca.
"A portal," Andrew replied.
"There is NO WAY!"
"There is NO WAY portals are real!" shouted Mitchell. Mitchell was shocked. Andrew stayed silent. They walked through the strange forest. They didn't know how to get out.
"Umm... Do you hear something?" asked Rebecca.
Something was happening to the forest. The branches were moving. They were closing all of the gaps.
"Ugg!!! We're stuck aren't we?" groaned Mitchell. A huge crash noise came from a book the came from the sky.
A big giant book had dropped down from one of the trees.
"A book?" Andrew said Andrew with shock.
Andrew picked the book up. It was very old and had no title.
"Hey guys look".
"Shh Mitchell! We are trying to think!" Screamed Rebecca.
"I'm telling you guys".

We should not wear a school uniform

Today I'm going to certainly persuade and educate you into thinking that we should not wear a uniform. All the reasons below will surely persuade you to believe the same way.

Firstly I strongly believe we should not wear a uniform because, I know I work better in casual clothes and my friends had to do for example on the last casual day I worked so much better and got my work done quicker.

Secondly, I certainly believe that we should not wear a school uniform because the school uniform is tight so it might hurt your stomach.
But if you wear normal clothes, did you know that I have to get 2 sizes big otherwise I will hurt my stomach.

Finally I think we definitely should not wear a uniform because it's unfair. Did you know most of the schools in America
get to wear casual clothes to school
so it's unfair to us in Australia.

Sorry Day

My tummy grumbles as I walk off my dad's boat, sweat frantically running down my neck. My dad and I have been fishing all day! We've only been able to catch a few barramundi but that's it. It's been a LONG journey, and I'm REALLY hungry, I'm about to head back to my camp, but I see something peculiar, I can't help myself, I have to creep a bit closer! I finally make out what it is! It's some kind of van, in there are the Aboriginal children in there, that dad talked about! Sweat is running down as my clenched fists are opening and closing, why would they do this?! I see two men step out of the van, I creep slowly and carefully, accidentally making the bush I'm hiding behind rustle, fortunately, it was at the same time when one of the men sneezed. I suddenly hear talking resist I'm getting irresistible! I have to hear this! I slowly crept forward, "What are we going to do with these blokes?" asked a man, the other man frowned and shrugged, "Let's send them to other white families!" exclaimed the man, I looked horrified, my face went white, I need to stop them! I ran back to my camp and told everything to my dad, but he shook his head in disappointment, "Sugar-pumpkin, you can't just go snooping around listening to other people's business!" my dad called, I knew that, but it wasn't me who had that ambition to go snooping around other people! It was simply my curiosity, "anyway, what's for dinner? I'm starving!" I asked, "barramundi and tinned tomato soup with bread" grinned my dad, I rolled my eyes, "I hate tomato soup." I groaned, but I was actually joking, tomato soup is the best with barramundi. I love it.

ICAS EXPLAINED

What is ICAS?

ICAS Assessments are online* assessments, designed to recognise and reward academic excellence.

The assessments are based on the curricula for the relevant year. Students are asked to demonstrate a deeper, integrated, and thorough level of learning.

To ensure an engaging and beneficial experience for all students, new ICAS assessments are developed annually for each subject in every year level.

ICAS will return to Holy Family Catholic School this year. We encourage you to consider entering your child in ICAS. This fantastic assessment program allows students to challenge themselves and be recognised for their academic efforts. The assessment is now fully online and sitting dates will commence in Term 3. FROM THE APRIM

Last Sunday, Christians celebrate the birthday of Church with the feast of Pentecost. It sparked the arrival of the Holy Spirit that through the gifts and the fruits the apostles received gave them the courage to carry on Jesus' mission of proclaiming the "Good News," to all nations.

The apostles formed communities that actively displayed qualities of sharing, love and forgiveness while they struggled against their own selfish desires and needs. They also performed miracles they never dreamed of as they suppressed their negativity and doubts and took risks.

With the Spirit of Jesus an energy was created that is the foundation of our Church today which continues Christ's mission on Earth.

PENTECOST SUNDAY (Year A)

Pentecost

My dear people of God, greetings of love and peace from Fr Santosh Pereira MSFS. This Sunday the 31st May we celebrate the feast of PENTECOST and I wish you all Happy Feast of Pentecost. With the celebration of Pentecost, we formally draw curtain to the Easter season and continue with the Ordinary time in the liturgical calendar. This feast is celebrated on the 7th Sunday after Easter Sunday. This feast is not only celebrated by us the Roman Catholic Church but also by Eastern Orthodox Church, Lutheran Churches, Anglican Church and other denominations. This shows the importance of this feast.

We Christians believe and worship in Triune God: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. Three persons but One GOD. God the Father and God the Son is very familiar to us as we constantly hear about them but unfortunately God the Holy Spirit is not so often preached and we know little about the Holy Spirit. The third person of the Trinity seems to be a forgotten person of the Trinity.

The feast of Pentecost reminds us of the great role the Holy Spirit has played and continues to play in the Church. This feast commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and other followers of Jesus Christ while they were in Jerusalem celebrating the Feast of Weeks, as described in the Acts of the Apostles 2:1-31. It was the fulfilment of the promise of Jesus to His apostles that God the Father would send the Paraclete who would teach them all things and remind them of everything He has said as written in John 14:26.

Every year when we celebrate the feast of Pentecost we celebrate this great event in the life of the Apostles. The Apostles and other disciples of Jesus were terrified seeing what had happened to Jesus, they were afraid and had closed themselves in the four walls of the room fearing they would meet the same fate as Jesus. But as the Holy Spirit descended upon them they were filled with courage, they were reminded of what Jesus had taught, they received the strength to open the shut doors and to come out, and to proclaim boldly the life and teachings of Jesus.

As we celebrate Pentecost let's pray that we be anointed with gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit to come out of darkness and fear, and to go out proclaiming Jesus through our words and deeds.

*God Bless. Live Jesus.
Fr Santosh Pereira MSFS*
